Year 3 and 4 Egyptian Workshop

Year 3 and 4 enjoyed dressing up and taking part in lots of activities during their Egypt workshop day. The children heard all about the history of Ancient Egypt from the pharaoh Narmar to Cleopatra. The children took part in a quiz, saw artefacts and enjoyed playing an Egyptian version of snakes and ladders. The day finished with some drama and a gory look at the mummification process.

Girls Football Tournament

Well done to the Year 5/6 girls, who represented Port Vale in a tournament at Burton Albion this week.

The team played brilliantly showing great levels of sportspersonship and conducted themselves really well.

They had a great day!

Well done Jade who won a trophy for being awarded with the most Brownie points.

Well done Maisie who completed a 5k walk for Alzheimer's around Liverpool.

Victoria Hall Dance Show

The girls from Packmoor Dance Club performed at the Victoria Hall on Tuesday night with a mega mash up of Robbie Williams songs.

They were fantastic!

Well done Harper who has achieved Badge 8 in Gymnastics.

Well done Ella who has completed badge 2 in Gymnastics.

Well done Luna-Rae and Pixie who took part in a dance competition and won lots of trophies, including 1st place in Hop Hop and Commercial.

Well done Chloe who took part in a Karate Tournament.

Well done Mikaeel who has passed his grading for his next belt for Taekwondo
